

Individual Development and Adaptive Education

KÖHLER-STIFTUNG

WEEKEND WORKSHOP WITH MARK SOLMS

A PRACTICAL INTRODUCTION TO NEUROPSYCHOANALYSIS: CLINICAL IMPLICATIONS

Frankfurt

27 & 28 May 2017

Venue: Sigmund-Freud-Institut
Myliusstraße 20
60323 Frankfurt

Cost: 190€

Enquiries: aimeedollman@gmail.com

This workshop will earn CME points and is accredited by the International Neuropsychoanalysis Society, which is in the process of establishing a clinical register. Completion of the workshop will count towards registration, when the register opens, but there will also be additional requirements (still being determined).

Lunches and refreshments will be provided.

THIS WORKSHOP WILL ALSO BE PRESENTED IN NEW YORK ON 9 AND 10 DECEMBER 2017.
DETAILS WILL BE SENT OUT CLOSER TO THE TIME.

PROGRAMME

SATURDAY

THEORETICAL LESSONS

Session 1 (9:00-11:00)

- The affective basis of consciousness itself (the conscious id)
- The unconscious nature of cognition (the unconscious ego)
- Working memory: the role of consciousness in cognition

Session 2 (11:30-13:30)

- Consolidation, automatization and repression (the 'cognitive' and 'dynamic' unconscious)
- Reconsolidation ("consciousness arises instead of a memory trace")
- Repression and defense (the return of the repressed)

Session 3 (15:00-17:00)

- Life's problems: a taxonomy of drives, instincts and affects (implications for psychopathology)

SUNDAY

CLINICAL LESSONS

Session 1 (9:00-11:00)

- Implications of the conscious id for the 'talking cure'
- Why our patients suffer mainly from feelings
- The meaning of symptoms
- The actual task of psychoanalytic treatment
- Countertransference (affective and object-relational dimensions)
- Why transference interpretation is mutative
- Why psychoanalytic treatment takes time: 'working through'

PRACTICAL EXAMPLES

Session 2 (11:30-13:30)

- First case presentation (by a workshop participant) and discussion

Session 3 (15:00-17:00)

- Second case presentation (by a workshop participant) and discussion

REGISTRATION FORM

*To reserve your place for this workshop, please complete and return this form to:
aimeedollman@gmail.com*

*Registration Closing Date: Wednesday 17 May 2017

Title: _____

Name: _____

Contact Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Profession: _____

Affiliation: _____

Note: Banking details for payment will be sent following receipt of the above registration details